

“The school is a model learning environment for boys, specifically tailored towards their needs”.
Independent Schools Inspectorate (ISI February 2010)

QEGS Junior School, Wakefield

(IAPS Day School, Boys 7-11 years)

Classroom Teachers - Year 2

QEGS Junior School has an enviable sense of community, a broad range of facilities and an excellent reputation for academic, sporting and co-curricular success. Located near to Wakefield City Centre, the school has an extensive pupil catchment from across South and West Yorkshire.

From September 2010, the School will enter an exciting phase as it begins its expansion to become a Pre-Prep for boys, with a Year 2 intake. The Pre-Prep is expected to be operational with Reception and Year 1 classes in its own separate accommodation by September 2011.

Two key posts become available from September 2010 for Year 2 Classroom Teachers, with an additional responsibility in either Numeracy or Literacy for the Pre-Prep. Both posts will also assist in shaping the Pre-Prep department going forward. Candidates should be suitably qualified, with a minimum of two years teaching experience, display excellent classroom practice, communicate successfully with parents and be flexible in their approach. A willingness to contribute to the extra-curricular and pastoral life of the school is also essential.

We can offer the following:

- Welcoming, bright and modern learning environment;
- Small class sizes;
- Dedicated teaching staff with an emphasis on Continuing Professional Development;
- Own specialist facilities including a DT workshop, science lab, music suite, swimming pool and playing fields;
- Regular national and local success in sport and music.

Both posts are full time and permanent. Salary is MPS and will also include a Responsibility Allowance + a Wakefield Supplement. The Teachers' Pension Scheme is also applicable. The successful applicants will be required to complete an enhanced CRB disclosure form.
