

Religion, Philosophy and Ethics Year 7 Overview

Religion being taught and topics covered	Extra reading or resources you could access
Introduction to Religion, Philosophy and Ethics Introduction to what it means to be religious Introduction to Philosophical thought through the ages Introduction to ethical ideas and concepts Opportunities to apply these concepts to real world examples	All work is completed in a booklet which is also available on FireFly. Articles, additional reading and multimedia resources will be added to FireFly as and when appropriate.
Christianity Examining the identity of Jesus Exploring Jesus' actions in the world Examine the miracles that Jesus worked Explore the way Jesus taught using parables Examine how the Bible came to be written Explore the uses of the Bible and the way the Bible is interpreted To examine the lives of St Peter and St Paul as founding figures of modern Christianity To explore the different types (denominations) of Christianity To examine how Christians help the world today	There are a selection of books available in the library. Articles, additional reading and multimedia resources will be added to FireFly as and when appropriate. BBC Bitesize revision Key Stage 3 Reonline.org.uk – a website with many good resources and links to appropriate videos and resources.
Islam Explore the world from which Islam was created Examine the life of Mohammad (pbuh) Explore how the Qur'an was revealed Examine the importance of the Qur'an Explore the teachings of the Five Pillars of Islam Examine the importance of the Mosque and Prayers for Muslims Examine the role of Islam in the world today The study of inspirational Muslim Women Examine the concept of Jihad	There are a selection of books available in the library Articles, additional reading and multimedia resources will be added to FireFly as and when appropriate. BBC Bitesize revision Key Stage 3 Reonline.org.uk – a website with many good resources and links to appropriate videos and resources